USES KEROSENE TO CLEAN SOOT FROM FLUE

That it is a dangerous matter to attempt to clean a flue with the aid of coal oil was demonstrated this afternoon when the fire department was summoned to the Colorado boarding house on lower Main street to extinguish a blaze in the kitchen. The department was at the court house when the alarm was sounded. The blaze was extinguished with but little effort and before any heavy damage resulted.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 10.—A jury in the circuit court here tonight awarded Mrs. Florence W. Rawn, widow of Ira G. Rawn, former president of the Moon railway, $15,661 in her suit against a life insurance company, which she was suing for a policy on her husband's life.

ALLOWS SUNDAY BARBERING

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Blue laws in the national capital have received a body blow through a police court decision which declares that barbers may work on Sunday. The case was one in which a local barber was being prosecuted for keeping his shop open on Sunday several months ago. The court held that the regulation prohibiting Sunday barbering was void.

NAME OF "DAD"

SON AND HEIR ARRIVES AT FAMILIAR RESIDENCE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

J. P. Montague, superintendent of the Tonopah Extension mill, is just as happy today as if he had been selected by President Wilson to accept a position in the new cabinet. A baby boy arrived at the Montague home yesterday afternoon, which accounts for the gladness. Dr. Grigsby, who was in attendance, reports mother and son as progressing nicely, while the Extension mill is progressing equally well under the supervision of the assistant superintendent. "Monte" will be able to resume his duties at the plant within the next day or two.

The son and heir is the first arrival in the Montague family. Mrs. Montague was formerly Miss Addie Wittenberg of this city.

the losses very serious.

In spite of positive law and the plainest instructions of the judge, every man of experience knows that a jury will occasionally take the law in its own hands, and acquit. This was about what happened in the Kesj case, for the evidence was direct and certain enough and there was an abundance of it. The law itself countenances a proceeding of this kind, because it makes no provision for further action on behalf of the state; that is to say, a jury in a criminal case is in effect given the right to say whatever the law may be applicable to a certain state of facts, it shall not always be enforced. This has been referred to by a recent writer as the legislative power of juries.

This reason for the occasional failure of convictions can hardly be wholly remedied while we adhere to our present jury system.

In conclusion it must be said that the acquittal in the Kesj case and the granting of this motion of dismissal afford little encouragement to the peace officers to enforce the gambling act as it should be enforced, and it is with much reluctance that I grant it; but knowing what I do about the cases, the character of evidence to be used, and the effect the Kesj acquittal must have, I am satisfied that convictions can not be obtained in the above entitled cases.

DR. P. D. McLEOD returned this morning from San Francisco where he spent the last week purchasing supplies for the Miners' hospital which will be taken over by himself and Dr. Cunningham the latter part of this week.

AMUSEMENTS

Butler Theatre

At the Butler this afternoon and evening a splendid program of pictures will be shown as follows:

"China and the Chinese," an Essanay educational picture; "Johnny Goes Ducking," a comedy; "The Manicurist and the Mutt," a comedy; "Bud's Heiress," a Selig comedy drama, a story of the Diamond S. ranch and a Vitagraph entitled "The Winning Hand." The mere description of this western portrayal seems impossible. When we see the picture it is convincing and logical. A young sheriff bound, with his hands tied behind his back. He lifts a burning candle from a can of powder, with his teeth, and burns the cords from his hands. He escapes and saves his sweetheart from death. There are intense moments of thrilling expectancy all through it. Tomorrow, "Everybody Doing It," Thursday, "The Power of Silence," a two-reel subject. Wednesday, Pathe's Weekly.

W. D. FORSTER, superintendent of the Tonopah & Goldfield railroad, after spending the last week on the coast, passed through Tonopah this morning en route to Goldfield.
